UNITED WORKMEN.

Red Letter Day of the Benevolent Order.

THE WOUNDED GAMBLER.

A Victim of Insidious Cocaine—Ramifications of the Police System.

Last night was a red letter one in the history of the local A. O. U. W. It was the occasion of the public installation of officers of two popular lodges of the order, under the immediate direction of Past Grand Master Mackay and Grand Master A. C. Barnes. Grand Master Barnes arrived yesterday morning from the North and was escorted to appartments at the Nadeau by a committee. The installation excercises took place in Masonic Hall, Spring street, which was well filled with interested spectators. Prior to the installation vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Vernon, James Booth and Mr. Phillips. The following officers of St. Elmo Lodge, 238, were then installed: P. M., J. B. Threlkeld; M., S. B. Sanborne; F., Chas. A. Bell; Overseer, T. R. Warren; Recorder, J. W. Drown; Financier, Charles Bell; Receiver, A. W. Ellis; Guide, R. C. Gray; Inside Watchman, C. L. Cross; Outside Watchman, H. Schmidt.

After more music and the interchange of congratulations, the officers of Southern California Lodge, 191, were installed as follows: P. M., S. E. Douglass; M. W., James Booth; Foreman, W. D. S. Harrington; Overseer, Ben. Strauss; Recorder, C. S. Johnson; Financier, Homer C. Katz; Receiver, J. M. Guinn; Guide, J. S. Ewing; Inside Watchman, R. Manco; Outside Watchman, M. A. Crawford.

THE WOUNDED GAMBLER.

Still Living With the Chances Against Recovery.

The condition of Arad Howe, shot by gambler Wicks Tuesday afternoon, under circumstances fully detailed in yesterday's HERALD, remains unchanged. Early yesterday morning watchers beside the wounded man's bed thought dissolution at hand. Howe rallied, however, and at a late hour last night was reported resting easily. His physicians state that it is not likely symptoms alarming or otherwise will develop for at least eight days to come. Then they look for a crisis. Pyæmia, or blood poisoning, is feared, and it is thought the prevalent warm weather will militate against the man's chances of recovery.

Wicks, who shot Howe, occupies a cell in the County Jail. He is calm and collected and says now that "Butch" and Howe assaulted him when he demanded his money, and that he shot in self-defense. He was visited yesterday by a number of the sporting gentry.

Addicted to Cocaine.

On the register at the City Prison appears the name of James McDonald. The charge booked against him is vagrancy. McDonald has a history. He is an educated man and possessed of an estate worth nearly $50,000. He came to this city some years ago for his health, and it was soon discovered that he was a victim of the dread cocaine habit. This habit he acquired in the East while practicing medicine. It grew upon him to such an extent that at times he became a raving maniac. His exploits, while under the influence of this all powerful drug in this city are well known. On Sunday he took to the drug and it became necessary to arrest and detain him, as he was dangerous at large. The only charge that could be placed against him was vagrancy. His friends, it is understood, will take him East when he is sufficiently recovered to travel. At the station diamonds and jewelry valued at over $2,000 were taken from McDonald and placed in the safe in the office.

NATURALIZATION.

August 4th the Last Day to Become Naturalized.

It is the important duty of every Democrat to see to it immediately that all who are eligible should be naturalized, so that their vote will not be lost at the coming election.

Naturalization will close on August 4th, and naturalizations effected after that date will not entitle the person to vote at the forthcoming election in November.

It should be the desire of every Democrat in every precinct of this county to enroll all persons who are entitled to become citizens by virtue of the laws relating to naturalization.

The following extracts from section 2,165, United States revised statutes, bearing upon the same, have special reference to the subject:

First papers—Any alien over 18, arriving in the United States, must have had first papers two years and have two witnesses—citizens who have known him in the United States five years.

To Register—Any alien arriving in the United States under 18 need not take out first papers, but must have two witnesses—citizens who have known him five years and before he attained his 18th year.

Where two witnesses cannot be procured as above, one witness knowing the applicant the required time, and one knowing him at least a year, will suffice.

Sea Service—Any alien having an honorable discharge of three years' service in any American merchant vessel, and who has taken out his first papers, can be admitted to citizenship upon proper testimony.

U. S. Army—Any alien having an hororable discharge from the armies of the United States, can be naturalized upon the testimony of one witness, without first papers.

Any native born female or the wife or daughter of a citizen, over 18 years of age, will be a good witness.

Last Day—August 4th is the last day for the naturalization of voters for the coming election.

Voter's Qualifications—State, 1 year; county, 90 days; precinct, 30 days; age, 21 years.

Too much stress cannot be laid upon the great necessity of naturalization, especially as the time is now so near when the naturalization list will be closed.

Let every Democrat see to it, therefore, that his brother Democrat is enrolled in the naturalization list before August 4th, and thus swell the vote for Cleveland, Thurman and good government.

Notes of Progress.

Many people wonder what the big building on the Sherer tract, below the Santa Fe depot, is for. It is now so far progressed as to attract attention. Mr. T. J. Wedon, of the California Bank, and one of the shrewdest of our business men, knows all about it. Tom is at the head of the scheme which is responsible for this step forward in a business way. It is to cost $50,000, and when completed will be used as a general warehouse. The multiplication of enterprise like this marks a big advance in the general business of the city.

WONG QUE.

His Mission and Work in this City and San Francisco.

Yesterday a HERALD man investigated into the antecedents of Wong Que, the high binder, who preferred charges against the Police Department which caused such a furor during the session of the City Council on Monday last. It was learned that Que reached Los Angeles on May 27 or 28, last, and that he was sent for to San Francisco by Ah Ark, a local Chinese "boss" and head manager for several leading Chinatown gamblers. Que was sent from the Tong Wo faction of the Chinese Six Companies in San Francisco and $50 was dispatched him by express for expenses. It was anticipated that Que would bring to this city a trusted lieutenant of his, named Quong Lee but this he did not do. The man Lee is now agent for a series of tan games in Sacramento. When Que reached this city he immediately repaired to the house of Ah Ark and there, in a day or two after his arrival he was duly commissioned as agent to see the authorities and try and "fix" things so that the raiding of tan games then being done by the Police Department could be stopped. Que is an oily Celestial. He visited the Mayor's office and that of the Chief of Police time and time again before he made his business known. He is said to have informed Mayor Workman that several gamblers not belonging to the Ark syndicate were paying the city $25 per week per game for the privilege of running them. He would be willing to do the same if he were allowed to open up games. Of course this was news for the Mayor. Que put his foot in it by making such a statement, for the Mayor quietly started in to investigate. Meantime the raiding by the police continued with increasing vigor. Que then, betraying his mission, opened up a game for himself in Nigger Alley, just below Los Angeles street. He incurred the enmity of Ah Ark's crowd and of other gamblers. One of Ah Ark's men went to him the night Que opened up and demanded that he pay the Ark syndicate $30 a week for the privilege of running or else the Ark crowd would kill him. Que told this man, Suey Long, that he would not pay that much, and it was then, about the middle of June, that the hue and cry was raised by Que and his gang that highbinders had been turned loose to annihilate them. This scared the Ark faction, and an emissary in the shape of a special policeman, employed by the Ark crowd, visited Que and said that if $15 per week per game were paid they would let him alone. Que said he would consider the matter, and next went and saw Mayor Workman. He is said to have told the Mayor all about it, and said that the policeman had demanded that he pay $15 per week per game. This is said to be the way the "Chinese crookedness" was brought about, and it was on account of Que's statement that members of the Council desired to see Chief Cuddy's administration investigated.

As to Que himself. He is accredited the most notorious highbinder and Chinese "case worker" in San Francisco, and was sent from that city to San Quentin prison, where he served four years for larceny. He was a member of the Sup Wo Company of highbinders, and was arrested twice by Corporals Avan and Hogue in San Francisco for assault to murder. It was Que who, with his principal, "Little Pete," now in Folsom Penitentiary arranged with a firm of ironmongers to "iron" all fan tan rooms in Chinatown in that city. The two then charged enormous amounts to Chinese gamblers for the privilege of being allowed to put up iron doors, walls, etc. "Little Pete," it seems, got most of the money collected, and refused to give Que his share. This provoked enmity between the two, and it was the machinations principally of Que that sent "Little Pete" to the Penitentiary. Que, since driven out of fan tan playing, together with others of his ilk, by the Police Department, has lived off the earnings of Chinese prostitutes, and now conducts two low brothels in Chinatown. In appearance he is of medium build with oval countenance. A marked feature is his very broad nose, which is so flat as to seem to form part of his facial contour. He talks English fluently and is one of the smoothest Celestials in town.

Powell Clayton, now or late of Arkansas, despairs of a negro suffrage, and thinks it has been a mistake. This Mr. Clayton is brought to that conviction because the negroes have ceased to be his tools. It is too late for him to undo his work, but the time is coming when the colored man will have better advisers, and it is very hopeful that he is beginning to understand the Claytons already.—[Boston Herald, (Ind.)

Pauper immigrants are prevented from landing, and no more consideration should be shown those who come over with the express intention of joining the Mormon ranks. In the interest of both the country and the honest, well-meaning newcomers, who are always welcome. the immigration laws of the United States sadly need revision.—[St. Paul Globe, (Dem.)

The Rev. Pendleton, who seems to have started the shame-faced lie that Cleveland abused his wife, wants to go to Africa as a missionary, but nobody seems willing to spare the cash to send him there. The Africans don't eat missionaries any more.—[Omaha World.

The executive department and the lower branch of Congress are now Democratic, and unless the Republicans are to be wiser than they have been in considering the subject of the tariff, so are they likely to be.—[Philadelphia Telegraph, (Ind. Rep.)

The slap at the mugwumps in the Republican platform indicates very clearly that the party leaders have set down the independent vote for Cleveland this year. And they are right.—[Kansas City Star, (Ind.)

As matters look now the firm of Cleveland and Thurman will do business at the old stand until 1892. Trade mark, a red bandana.—[New York Herald, (Ind).

LOCAL BRIEFS.

What is Going On In and About the Town.

HE SPOILED HIS WEDDING.

A Man Drugged and Robbed in a Dive Saloon on Main Street.

Emell Metzler was arrested yesterday on a charge of battery, preferred by Mrs. Hossman, who appeared at the police station with her nose badly bruised and a swollen upper lip, which she said was caused by Metzler's fist. Yesterday was to have been Metzler's wedding day, and it is related that Miss Lena Meiniger was to have been his bride. It will be remembered that a short time since a man named Joe Skrobinski was arrested and charged with burglarizing a trunk on Boyd street. Joe was a half brother to Metzler and was said to be engaged to Lena. No sooner was Joe taken to the County Jail, where he is now incarcerated than, it is said, Metzler laid siege to Lena's affections to such good purpose that yesterday was to have been their wedding day. Mrs. Hossman, who has had considerable trouble with her husband and is said to be a hard-working woman, for some reason says she left some clothes at Lena's house and yesterday went there to get them because they had not been sent home. She alleges that they were retained as a part of Lenas' wedding outfit and that her demand angered Metzler, who knocked her down and not only bruised her face, but kicked her and tried to stamp on her face. Metzler's wedding was spoiled and Mrs. Hossman said she would appear against him this morning.

OSTRICH FARMING

One of the Most Profitable Industries.

Ten chicks have been hatched out during the past week at the Priory Ostrich farm near Norwalk, and the question is now satisfactorily settled that ostrich farming is carried on under the most favorable conditions in this country. The feather crop is an excellent one and will be plucked about the 15th of August. This will make the second picking this year and the returns will be about $90 to $115 for feathers alone from each bird. There is a big demand for the plumage in fact, more than the present ranches can supply. At the Los Feliz farm near this city the birds are also doing remarkably well and Mr. Beauchamp, the proprietor, will reap a rich harvest as a result of his speculation. Since the enterprise of Southern California has shown how profitable an industry this is, the residents of Western Arizona are anxious to have a finger in the pie, and a farm is to be established near Phœnix.

UP IN SMOKE.

A Notorious Rookery Destroyed by Fire.

John Abbott's tumble-down rookery, west side of Alameda, near Aliso street, was burned to the ground this morning at 2 o'clock.

At that hour an alarm was sent the Fire Department, from the box at the southeast corner of the thoroughfares named. The Richmond system, as usual, worked badly and the department was sent nearly to Fifth and Main streets before a flare in the heavens pointed out the true location of the fire. The boys responded with great promptness and soon had the fire out after protecting adjoining valuable property.

The building has been leased by women of the town and was divided into a series of "cribs." It is estimated the loss will be about $2,000, fully covered by insurance.

The Board of Education.

The Board of Education met last night, Dr. Crawford in the Chair and Messrs. Day, Embody, Kelly and Johnson present. Twenty acceptances from teachers appointed at the last meeting of the Board were received. One came without being signed. There were about a hundred and thirty teachers elected. and the fact that only twenty acceptances had been received rather surprised the Board who expected that acceptances would be forwarded at once. Several applications for positions as teachers were received and referred to the Committee on Teachers. Applications were also received for positions as janitors and referred to the Janitor's Committee. After discussing the supplying of the school department with coal and other supplies the Board adjourned.

Dismissed.

The case of H. C. Davis, the sporting man, accused of having mulcted one McNevin at a game of cards some time ago, was called in Judge Taney's Court last evening. Davis was present without counsel. Deputy District Attorney Dunlap stated to the Court that he had carefully looked into the case and had come to the conclusion that McNevin had mistaken Davis for the man who robbed him. He then formally moved the dismissal of the case against Davis. The motion was granted and the defendant was discharged.

Drugged in a Saloon and Robbed.

James F. Lindsay, first officer of the American ship W. H. Smith, lying at San Pedro, reported at Police Headquarters at 1 o'clock this morning that he had been robbed late last night of $125 in gold and greenbacks, a silver watch and the key of a sextant. Lindsay told Clerk Si True that he had entered a saloon in Upper Main street and was drugged and robbed there. He could give no description of the men who robbed him, but described his watch. Detectives are at work on the case.

Undelivered Telegrams.

Undelivered telegrams at the Western Union Telegraph office, No. 6 Court street, at 10 P. M., July 17th: A. J. Gabriel, George Nelson, J. F. Fuller, Mrs. W. S. Lynn, Dr. Henry J. Schell, Ed. Walsh, Frank Gage, W. W. Cozzens, Iowa & California Land Company.

THE RAILROADS.

Collision on the S. P. Near Sobrante.

DEATH OF "DEACON" STANWOOD.

Mr. M. M. Kirkman Visits the City. General Gossip About the Depots.

A big wreck occured on the line of the Southern Pacific between Sobrante, 21 miles this side of San Francisco, and Pinole, a point 3 miles further south. The following particulars of the calamity have been telegraphed to the HERALD from Sobrante. "A work train bound north collided with a south bound freight near here this morning. The collision took place in a sharp rounded cut and the engineers did not see each other's train until within a few yards of each other. The engineer and fireman of the freight train jumped and escaped with slight injuries, and engineer Buck of the work train also escaped by jumping. Fireman Fish however was caught as the engines came together, and the locomotives were completely telescoped. When the workmen went to Fish's assistance they found him fastened under the wreck and enveloped in a cloud of escaping steam. He quietly asked the men to shut off the steam, and this was done. Fish lay fastened under the wreck several hours before a physician arrived, and his leg had to be amputated before he could be released. The engine and cars are almost a total wreck."

The work train was manned by laborers employed on the construction of the double track between Port Costa and Oakland, the need of which has so often been commented on by the press. It is deemed probable that the cause of the accident was similar to that which governed the wreck above San Fernando a couple of months ago.

A WELL-KNOWN OFFICIAL.

Mr. M. M. Kirkman, of Chicago, Visits the City.

Mr. M. M. Kirkman, Comptroller of the Chicago and Northwestern road, arrived in the city in a special over the Santa Fe yesterday. Mr. Kirkman is the author of several valuable treatises on railroading, and is considered one of the best-informed railroad men in the country. He entered the service of the Chicago and Northwestern road in February, 1857, as telegraph operator, and has never left that company since, working his way steadily up to his present position, to which he was appointed on June 30, 1881. Mr. Kirkman expressed his great satisfaction at the thriving condition of the railroads in this part of the country, and predicts that it will be doubled in the course of a very few years. He left on the noon train yesterday for Mojave, from which point he will return to his headquarters at Chicago over the Atlantic and Pacific road. Mr. Kirkman is accompanied on his tour by Mr. James S. Kirk, of Kirk & Co., Chicago; Mr. Andrew McNally, of the publishing firm of Rand & McNally; Mr. William Blanchard, of the Ford River Lumber Company; Mr. V. W. Foster, the tie and lumber merchant, and Dr. Hawkes, a prominent physician, all of Chicago.

COAL AND LUMBER.

Brisk Traffic Between Here and San Pedro.

Coal and lumber traffic between this city and San Pedro is booming at an unusually lively rate. Yesterday ten coal ships were anchored off the wharf, and two more were sighted coming in. Their cargoes will be unloaded and shipped to this city as speedily as possible, the greater portion of the coal being for the Southern Pacific's use, and the rest for local dealers. Some idea of the immensity of this business may be conveyed by the fact that 1,600 tons of this fuel were hauled in during the last twenty days in June. The enormous coal bunks in the San Fernando street yards are well filled, and it is estimated that there is a six months' supply on hand.

Regarding lumber the officials state that though slack for a short time last month, the traffic is now picking up at a very lively rate, the imports into this city during the past five days being as much as for the whole month previous.

"DEACON" STANWOOD GONE.

Death of A Prominent Railroad Official.

The news reached the city yesterday of the death of Mr. H. P. Stanwood, General Agent for the Chicago and Northwestern Road at San Francisco, and one of the most popular and prominent railroad men on the Coast. Everyone knew "the Deacon" and his kindly smile and cheery welcome will be sorely missed by his associates and friends. He was born in Hopkinton, N. H., on July 13th, 1832, and entered the railway service on his birthday in 1853, as cashier for the contractors building the Somerset and Kennebec Road. He gradually crept up the ladder of his procession, and in February, 1873 was appointed General Pacific Coast Agent of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, and on December 1st, 1886, entered into authority as General Agent of the same system.

Pullman Passengers.

The following Pullman passengers left yesterday for San Francisco and the North:

By the 12:45 P. M. train—M. C. Johnson, W. J. Andrews, Geo. Moulton, Mrs. Kipner, Mr. O'Neal, Mr. Davis, E. R. Taylor, A. J. Veeley, Mrs. S. C. Shaw, M. G. Moore, Miss Freeman, Mr. Reeves, Mr. Harrington, Mr. Walker, Mr. Leon, Mr. Abbott, Mrs. Taylor, S. C. Sloan, C. Montgomery, Mr. Connor, Mr. Waters, Mrs. Harwood, Mr. Otterson, J. R. Toberman, Mr. Gardner, Dr. Knox, J. D. Nicholson, J. W. Waters, Mrs. Church, D. R. Powers, F. C. Clark, Mr. Johnson, J. M. Litchfield, J. A. Thomas, J. D. Harvey.

By the 9:30 P. M. train—R. Johnson, Mr. Pittsburn, O. L. Barnes, J. McArthur, Mrs. N. Stewart, Mr. Contley.

Transferred Up North.

All of the work having been completed on the Declez spur, the Pacific Improvement Company's outfits that were engaged there have been transferred up North, to where the double-track between Port Costa and Oakland is being laid down. This is a very important and necessary piece of work, as thirty-four trains pass between the two points named each day and with only a single track the train dispatchers have to be remarkably careful to avoid accidents. The work is being pushed rapidly and as about three-fourths of it is done the completion will be announced very shortly.

New Freight Rates.

The following notice was received yesterday at the Union Pacific offices in this city: From July 18th to August 31st, 1888, both dates inclusive, the rates on California hops, old crop, if valued not to exceed five cents per pound, from California terminals to Missouri River and usual common points east thereof, will be $1.50 per 100 pounds. On and after September 1st, 1888, tariff rates then provided will apply.

W. W. HITCHCOCK,
General Agent.

The San Diego Line.

From the present indications the Santa Fe's line between this city and San Diego will be ready for operation within thirty days. All of the labor is now being centered on the big bridge across the Las Flores creek, and the gap in that part of the country of about one and a half miles will soon be closed. The run between First street, this city, and San Diego will be made in about 4 hours.

The Wolfskill Depot.

It is expected that the Wolfskill depot will be completed in about four weeks' time, as all of the heavy work has been done and the material for the finishing touches is on hand. The tracks within the depot are laid and the passenger yards are now being constructed. No date has yet been decided on for the transfer of the offices.

Railroad Enterprise.

The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific has issued very fine campaign lithographs, containing good portraits of the Presidential and Vice-Presidential nominees of both parties. Mr. F. W. Thompson, the genial representative of that system in this city, has a large supply of them on hand and can easily be induced to part with one.

General Gleanings.

Engineer Perris, of the California Central, was in the city yesterday.

A Cotterall excursion will leave the city to-night for all points East. Two carloads have been recruited in this city and will be joined by three more at San Francisco.

Messrs. Hechtman and Page are busy collecting data and information for the pamphlet which the Union Pacific intends to issue shortly about Southern California in general and Los Angeles in particular.

The Central Pacific has ordered 100 new locomotives within the last five months, and is building some heavy ten-wheel locomotives at the Sacramento shops. The engines have an extended front and straight stock, and weigh 111,500 pounds in working order. Fifteen hundred 30-feet freight cars of 50,000 pounds capacity have been added to the equipment lately, 1,000 being box and the other 500 flat cars. The standard rail now used weighs 60 pounds per yard.

PEDRO YAUIS

Sent From Los Angeles to the Industrial School.

Pedro Yauis, the youth charged with the murder of George Stephenson, station agent for the Southern Pacific Company at Glamis, in the desert, is a boy well known in Los Angeles. Yauis lived here about four years ago, and was employed by an Italian as a chore boy on a small holding located five or six miles from town. He was accounted a worthless lad, and soon after he entered the Italian's employ he quarrelled with his master. One night the youth is said to have poisoned the man by mixing strychnine in the food prepared for him. Young Yauis was arrested and tried for this crime, ex-District Attorney George M. Holton conducting the prosecution. He was convicted and sentenced to serve two years. In consideration of his tender years, Yauis was not sent to San Quentin, but served his time in the Industrial School at San Francisco. He has not been seen hereabouts since, and the first heard of him was when, in Monday's HERALD, full particulars of the awful butchery of Stephenson at Glamis station, were given.

MINING NOTES.

Some Good Prospects in Los Angeles County.

A good deal of work is going on in the mines about Gorman's station, in the west of Antelope Valley, and Messrs. Kolle and Moore have a well-defined ledge in sight. From the other mine, the one containing tin, they sent several specimens to London to be assayed, as it was impossible to get it done here. The result showed 14 per cent. tin, 42 per cent zinc and 1 oz. 1 dwt. 4 grs. of gold. Five working specimens tested in San Francisco showed an average of $36.35 in gold and silver, and three assays made in Los Angeles went respectively 116 oz. silver and 1 oz. 4 dwts. 7 grs. gold; 3 oz. 4 dwts. 8 grs. gold and 11 oz. silver and 2 oz. 5 dwts. and 6 grs. gold and 13 oz. silver.

Anschlag in Court.

Anschlag was taken into court yesterday for the purpose of ascertaining who his attorney is. Mr. F. McGregor stated that he was no longer connected with the case, and Anschlag said he had appointed H. Crawford, who was not present. The matter was continued until Friday next, when the Court will appoint some attorney.

To Wed.

The following were yesterday licensed to wed:

Geo. A. Grimes and Fannie E. Williken of Los Angeles.

J. W. Canton of Los Angeles and Mertie Branch of Artesia.

Francisco S. Montano and Cleofas Moreno of Los Angeles.

Wm. Weinig and Nellie Coombes of Los Angeles.

Sold Liquor to Indians.

John Smith pleaded guilty to a charge of selling liquor to Indians in the United States District Court, yesterday, and was sentenced by Judge Ross to two years in the San Bernardino County Jail. Three other men charged with the same offence pleaded not gulity, and will be tried later.

The Supervisors.

The Supervisors met yesterday and decided to divide Los Nietos township into two townships, the one north of the Los Angeles and Telegraph road to be called Los Nietos, and the other to be called Downey. Charles F. Haines and S. W. Burke were appointed Justices of the Peace for Los Nietos.

To Be Examined.

Two of the men charged with robbing the express box of Wells, Fargo & Co., at the depot, were taken before Justice Taney and pleaded not guilty. Their cases were set for examination on July 26th, and bail was fixed at $2,000 each.

Of All Things in the World

A tonic is what nervous people require. To impart strength into the nervous organism is to insure its tranquillity, provided causes of unhealthy excitement are avoided. A medicinal tonic that—like Hostetter's Stomach Bitters—commands the unqualified sanction of the healing profession, and which institutes a general reform in the bilious, dyspeptic and debilitated condition of the system, is surely entitled to a careful trial by intelligent people, capable of forming a due estimate of a medicine, from emphatic and often recorded professional evidence in its behalf. Not only are the nerves and stomach invigorated by the Bitters, but the system is also endowed with unwonted power of resistance to influences in air, water or daily avocations subversive of health. Prominently dangerous among the first named of these is malaria, against which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters afford a competent safeguard. Rheumatism and kidney troubles are also prevented and overcome by it.

DRUNKENNESS

Or the Liquor Habit Positively Cured by Administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For sale by R. W. Ellis & Co. Druggists, 27 S. Spring St., Los Angeles.

THE SANTA FE HOSPITAL.

Resolutions to Collect Money Adopted by the Board of Trade.

At its meeting the Board of Trade took action towards securing the hospital of the Santa Fe Railroad Company for Los Angeles and adopted the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company has proposed to the citizens of Los Angeles that it will build a hospital within the city limits, to cost not less than $60,000, provided the citizens of the city will donate a suitable site for the same, not to be less than two and one-half acres and in suitable locality and

WHEREAS, It is stated by the Surgeon in charge, Dr. W. W. Ross, that this building is a charitable institution, donated by the Company to its employees, and maintained by the employees themselves, and

WHEREAS, The Company agrees to erect said building and have it in full operation within one year from the date of the deed to said site, and

WHEREAS, the cost of a suitable site will be about $7,500, $5,450 of which has already been raised, leaving a balance of about $2,050 yet to be provided, and

WHEREAS, the cities of San Diego, Santa Barbara, Pasadena and other outside places are making satisfactory offers to the company for said building, and

WHEREAS, Los Angeles city is undoubtedly the proper place for such building, therefore be it

Resolved, That the business men and citizens of the city of Los Angeles be respectfully requested to lend such financial aid as is possible, to raise the additional amount necessary to have said building erected within our city limits.

Resolved, That the President appoint a committee to wait upon the citizens of Los Angeles and solicit the necessary amount, and further the Secretary of this Board of Trade is hereby authorized to receive any subscriptions for this purpose, until the required amount is obtained.

THE OUTFALL SEWER.

The Right of Way to be Obtained on the Surveyor's Report.

At the meeting of the City Council Monday, the matter of securing a right of way for the outfall sewer was turned over to the Sewer Committee to report on Monday next. This right of way will be based on the following report of the City Surveyor:

I have completed the preliminary surveys for outfall sewer from San Pedro street at south city boundary along said boundary, and following the line of the L. A. and I. Railroad to the Ballona creek 35,212 feet, where a bridge will be necessary; thence leaving the railroad and passing across the country about 10,825 feet to public road leading to South Santa Monica, thence along public road about 9,000 feet to corner of post fence, 2,000 feet west of John Charnock's place, thence about S. 450 W. to the ocean beach 14,000 feet, making the entire distance 69,037 feet.

The various gradients found on this line determine that the sewer shall be of the following sizes or dimensions: 4,292 feet of 2x3 feet, 9,000 feet of 2 feet 2 x 3 feet 3, 16,920 feet of 2 feet 8 x 4 feet, 14,000 feet of 3 feet 3 x 4 feet 6, 24,825 feet of 3 feet 4 x 5 feet. Distance from San Pedro street to ocean beach, 13.07 miles; distance from west city line to ocean beach, 11.87 miles. If this is laid with brick I estimate the cost to be as follows:

1,127,000 brick at $20 per 1,000, laid in wall	$225,400
69,037 feet of excavation	69,000
Bridge at Ballona Creek	5,000
Total	$300,000

If laid with concrete I estimate the cost to be as follows:

Concrete work	$226,821
Trench	69,000
Bridge	5,600
Total	$301,421

The sewer will discharge 23,760,000 gallons in twenty-four hours and it is safe to say will accommodate at least 200,000 people. The right of way should be obtained and vested in the city for all time, so that if it should be found advisable to duplicate this line at any future period there will be no obstacle in the way.

I would suggest that steps be taken to secure a strip ten feet wide on the south side of the Los Angeles and Independent railroad right of way from San Pedro street west where the railroad right of way is very narrow and not sufficient to allow any way for sewer, but barely sufficient for a double track railroad, which will probably be laid before a great while.

This report is based on preliminary surveys, but is very close to what should be final and if the Council desires to go on with the work, it will please notify me and I will proceed to make final location of line and a map, showing accurately the location and names of property owners.

AN EASTERN TRIP.

Inquiries About Los Angeles—Hot Weather.

Mr. F. M. Keach, the merchandise broker of this city, has been passing the past forty-two days in the East and traveling there at the rate of two hundred miles a day. He says that he was kept busy answering questions about Los Angeles, and everyone appeared to have made up their minds to visit this city. The heat in the East, he says is something unbearable, and during his residence in New York, from the 19th to the 23d of June, the deaths from the weather averaged twenty-six a day. He was in New York when the news came from Chicago of the nomination of Harrison and he says that no enthusiasm at all was displayed at the announcement. Only about fifty people were standing about the HERALD office when the bulletin conveying the news was posted and nearly all expressed their disapprobation. On the railroad cars, Mr. Keach says, he heard numbers of persons enquiring who Harrison was and the Republican nominee was evidently at the time as little known among the working classes of the East as he was on the Pacific Coast.

THE PRECIOUS FLUID.

An Additional Supply For San Pedro.

The residents of San Pedro are delighted at the prospects of obtaining a better water service. At the present time their supply is piped down from Wilmington and is controlled by the Bannings, who charge 1 cent a gallon delivered at the docks. Even at this rate the town cannot get either the quantity or quality desired, and several attempts have been made to obtain an additional service. Men are now working on the Gabe Allen Spring, about two miles away in the mountains on the Palos Verdes Ranch and have tunneled in 30 feet with the pleasant result of obtaining a flow of about 2 inches. There is every indication that this will be largely increased as the work continues and the water, which is of the purest quality, will then be piped into the town. It is expected that the Bannings will endeavor to gain possession of this also, as a new company has lately been formed, with a large capital, to furnish the town with water.

Life on the Desert.

An arrival from Prescott yesterday, who traveled over the Atlantic and Pacific road, says that the heat on the desert is something frightful. At the Needles, children on the train were literally gasping for breath, and it was impossible to touch a piece of metal exposed to the sun, for it felt as if red-hot. The officials are unable to obtain white men to do any section work on the road anywhere in that district, and even Chinamen can scarcely do anything. As a result one sees Indians engaged in the pursuit, and are said to prove admirable workmen. They are remunerated at the rate of $1.50 a day.

Solomon's Remains Found.

Regarding Joe Solomon of this city, whose untimely death by drowning in the San Joaquin river on Sunday was chronicled in yesterday's HERALD, the following dispatch was received from his brother Charley by his relatives here last night:

TURLOCK, July 17.

"Just arrived here; body found. We go with remains to Modesto and will be home as soon as possible."

Due notice of the funeral will be given later on.

A Rapid Rise.

A good instance of the marvellous increase of property values in this county has been brought to light recently. In 1882 the Palos Verdes Ranch of 3,000 acres, adjoining the town of San Pedro, was for sale at $8 or $10 an acre, and a few days ago the Southern Pacific offered for the same property $100 an acre. This was refused, as the owners, the Sepulvedas, say they will not part with it for less than $300 per acre.

Don't Forget

The mammoth auction sale of upholstered goods, furniture and carpets at the elegant salesrooms over 227, 229, 231 and 233 South Spring street, Wednesday at 10 A. M. and 2 P. M. Everybody attend.

INCREASING DAILY.

Each Day the Throng of Afflicted Visiting Dr. Evans at His Parlors at Hollenbeck Hotel Increases.

And many a God bless you, Doctor, is heard from the lips of those who leave his rooms freed from pain and suffering, which they had been lead to believe by their physicians years ago was incurable. It is certainly a blessing to the afflicted of this community to have a physician in their midst who can give the long sought for relief, and it is doubly gratifying to know that when they are cured by him they are not temporarily but permanently cured, in all cases where the patient receives the necessary number of treatments. Dr. Evans was compelled by the demand upon his time at the hotel to discontinue his daily free treatments of the poor at Masonic Hall, 89½ South Spring street, but he will meet the public at that place every Monday morning hereafter during his stay in the city, at 10 o'clock, and will devote from one to two hours to the treatment of those who are unable to pay for his services at the hotel, and he cordially invites the public and especially the skeptical to attend and witness his marvellous magnetic power over disease. His consultation at his parlors at Hollenbeck Hotel is free.

FOR DYSPEPSIA and Liver Complaint, you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer. It never fails to cure.

The Life of Trade Centered in the People's Store.

Each day adds another reward of merit to the many that have linked themselves to the name of the "People's Store" since we have opened our various departments of men's wear. Justly to do we deserve all the praise that has been showered upon us for we have read the people a new story. We have shown them that clothing, hats, shoes, etc., could be sold at the same ratio of profit which has made our other departments so famous throughout Southern California. We were pointed out as the "champions of low prices" for ladies' wear, and we will occupy the same position in our prices of men's wear. A few examples of our doings will be enumerated below. We defy competition.

Gains and Losses Politically.

Basing their statement upon an editorial article which appeared in the Los Angeles Times, a number of the San Francisco papers have announced that ex-Governor John G. Downey has come out in favor of the Republican ticket. At the time we expressed grave doubts of the ex-Governor's having joined the phalanx of his old enemies. The San Bernardino Courier has put Governor Downey on record as having entered the Prohibition party—a not improbable supposition. We regard the Courier as the better authority of the two, and shall look for him in the cold water ranks until we have later and more authentic advices. But what matters it that men under new issues should change their political affiliations? Knowing that the ex-Governor is a very gallant and chivalric man, we should not be surprised to see him pulling up shortly in the select but highly respectable entourage of Belva Lockwood. Against the ex-Governor's defection we can place the adhesion of the Hon. Calvin B. Edgerton, who comes over to us on the tariff issue. Such changes will be and are being recorded all over the United States. As the New York World very appositely says, "as the campaign progresses "it becomes more evident that the tariff "issue will force a new division of the "voters. Already from many parts of "the country come reports of Republi-"cans who are repelled from the support "of the candidates of their party by the "platform adopted at Chicago. Similar "accounts are published of Democrats "who will desert their party because "of the policy promulgated by "the President, adopted by its "representatives in Congress and in-dorsed by the National Convention. "It is natural that this should be so. "The theory of party organization and "party government is that men who "think alike and whose interests are "identical should act together. Why "should a citizen who believes in a freer "trade, lower taxes on necessities and "the prevention of a surplus vote against "his convictions because he was a Repub-"lican on the slavery question or in sup-"port of the war? Why should a man "who believes in perpetuating the war "tariff, even if whisky and tobacco have "to be freed from taxation and a policy "of extravagance be adopted to get rid "of the surplus, vote with Democrats "who are directly and openly opposed to "his views? There is but one issue of "any consequence in the present can-"vass. It embodies a new irrepressible "conflict, and it will as inevitably cause a "realignment of parties, now or later, as "did the old conflict between freedom "and slavery."

Give Us the Bottom Facts.

There is probably no man in Los Angeles who would like to see Chief of Police Cuddy retain his position if that official has been a derelict in his duty. On the other hand, the sense of fair play in this community is too strong to admit of a successful persecution of a faithful official. Statements by Chinese highbinders and ex-Chinese convicts will amount to nothing if unsupported by credible testimony. The present investigation of our police affairs is based on charges made by a Chinaman, and written in the hand of a Caucasian. They are not supported by oath, and when a member of the Council very sensibly asked the City Clerk how they came to be on his desk the President of the Council interfered very peremptorily to interrupt the answer. This is not the way such charges should be preferred. Chief Cuddy has acted in a manly way and courted all possible inquiry. The HERALD thinks that this whole matter ought to be probed to the quick. Allegations have been made that three Chinamen have been collecting $30 a week from thirty fan-tan games, and that this money has been used to procure immunity from molestation from the police. Why are not these three men arrested and made to tell what they know? They are engaged in a game of blackmail and should be under prison bars, if the allegations are true. The HERALD calls for the fullest possible investigation of this matter. Let there be light. If there is rottenness anywhere let it be made manifest. Gambling, both by Caucasians and Chinamen, has been stopped under Chief Cuddy's administration, so we honestly believe. But we want to get at the bottom facts, and we wish to see blackmailers, whether white or black, copper-colored or fair of skin, in the prison cells which they have richly earned. We do not believe that the large sum of nearly $1,000 a week is being collected in blackmail from Chinamen. If it is, we desire to see the iniquity exposed and suppressed. Such a sum would be the equivalent to the payment of fifty-two dollars a year apiece by one thousand Chinamen. We do not take much stock in such a preposterous proposition, but "we want to know, you know," and so do all law abiding Angelenos.

Let No Guilty Man Escape.

Mr. Cuddy has taken the proper course about what seems to be a malicious persecution of him being carried on by his colleagues. While he need not submit to the indignity of an investigation carried on by indirection and in flagrant violation of all legal modes of procedure, yet armed in the perfect panoply of conscious innocence he courts, he demands an investigation, full and thorough, into all his official acts. That is right. But there has been a great deal of talk in the present and in the past about this police office, and it has included the conduct of more than the Chief. It has included the Commissioners. Nor is fan-tan, or gaming generally, the only violation of law which it is said the guardians of the law have been derelict in not suppressing. There are other ills that flesh is heir to which are said to fester directly under the patronage of those high in office—in some cases higher than the office of Chief of Police.

Nor yet, does the HERALD think it right that the investigation should be confined to those now incumbents of the office of Chief of Police, or of Police Commissioners. Let the inquiry take a broad range, and let us know what has been done and what has been proposed by our officials in regard to games; to the surreptitious licensing of the same; to houses of ill-fame and the allowing of some of them to run; of propositions in favor of this game being connived at, and that one shut up. Let us know all. Let us know if a gambler who came from Chicago was to be pushed relentlessly to the wall, while a fellow from Leadville, let us say, was to be passed over. Let us know too if a house of ill-fame was to go unmolested because the proprietor had been found handy as a source of information about gambling. We would not suggest that the inquiry should go back to variety dives beyond the Continental divide, as that is clearly outside the jurisdiction of this court of inquiry. But there can be no good reason, for example, why our excellent Mayor should not be called as a witness, put under oath and made to tell what he knows of gambling bribes under a Republican administration of the office of Police Commissioners. Let the investigation be had openly before the public, and above all, before the whole Council. The good Mayor of this good City of the Angels, and his yokefellow Mr. Humphreys, held many star-chamber meetings. Many people of most shady reputation have been wont to resort to these gatherings, and doubtless much valuable information and many plans meant to be fruitful will be found in the minutes of these meetings or treasured in the memories of those present. Let us have all out, and show the public, now anxious on this head, the whole truth about all the Police Commissioners, present and past. Let not the Mayor be forgotten in the subpœnas, and let not those who were present at the Star Chamber meetings be left out.

THE "trooly virtuous" Times holds up the shooting of a citizen by a gambler Monday night as something that impugns the HERALD'S confident declaration that never in the past history of Los Angeles have we had a better administration of the office of Chief of Police than now. It refers to the shootist's coolly walking off after the bloody episode. If the scribe of our esteemed contemporary had not shot off his pen too soon he could have learned that at a late hour the same night the homicide walked into the police office and surrendered himself, with the remark that he knew he could not get away from the vigilant police of Los Angeles and thought it was useless to try. Almost before you could say "Jack Robinson," so to speak, the murderer was within prison bars. If he had now been on his way to Sonora, with the certainty of covering his tracks, there would be something in the arraignment by our esteemed contemporary. Knowing that he could not, for any considerable time, escape the argus-eyed police of Los Angeles, Wicks, to employ a sportsman's phrase, "anteed and passed the buck." Such incidents as that recorded in yesterday morning's HERALD were of almost daily happening in this city at a time when we had not a tenth of our present population. They are of late of such extremely rare occurrence that they are simply the exception that proves the rule.

ONE of the amusing things about the present campaign is the attempt on the part of the Republican party to arraign the Democracy on the ground of their advocacy of free trade. Now this would be a very serious charge, indeed, if there were anything in it. But then there is not, you know. The Democratic party has started out to stop a steadily accumulating surplus which is rapidly draining the country of ready money, and which is making the cash which any man owes on mortgage or note swell to such dimensions that each dollar looks as large as a cartwheel, and the whole reduction aimed at is an average of seven per cent. That is, the Democratic party proposes to reduce a forty-seven per cent. tariff to forty per cent., and to so adjust the duties that the consumer may get the necessaries of life at a moderate figure. The very proposition of reducing the surplus and making it impossible for the future, is of itself enough to make it popular with those who would like to see money circulating in a volume sufficient to enable them to earn it or borrow it. If the $150,000,000 which are now lying idle in the United States Treasury beyond the needs of the Sinking Fund were in active circulation, a thousand schemes of development would be under way which now languish from the artificial contraction of the circulation brought about by the War Tariff. The masses cannot be caught with chaff, and they know where their true interests lie.

IT CAN certainly do no harm to have the exact status of General Harrison on questions of interest to the Pacific Coast ascertained. The following very clearly exhibits one strong phase of his love for the Chinese:

On April 28, 1882, Benjamin Harrison voted in the United States Senate to admit to this country free of the Chinese Restriction Act all Chinese "skilled laborers" and "Chinese engaged in mining." Section 15 of the Chinese Restriction Act reads:

Section 15. That the words "Chinese laborers," wherever the same occurs, shall be construed to mean both skilled and unskilled laborers and Chinese employed in mining.

Senator Harrison voted to strike that section out.—[Congressional Record, April 28, 1882, Vol. 13, Part 4, p. 3411.

The joint anti-silver record of Harrison in the Senate and Morton in the House is equally pronounced and unmistakable. General Harrison voted in the Senate, in all stages of its passage, against the bill to restrict Chinese immigration. In the House of Representatives Levi P. Morton voted, in all the stages of its passage, against the Bland bill to remonetize silver. How is that for a Pacific Coast ticket? Against silver, and in favor of Chinese.

OUR Republican friends seem to be in a delightful state of certainty as to whether they want drinks at a dime, or two for a nickel.

INDICATIONS are that the Mills bill will come to a vote next Saturday. Then we shall know what we shall know.

Political Points.

We hear less from Ohio editors about the oppression of the negro vote in the South since Alger suppressed some of Sherman's negro votes at Chicago.—Louisville Courier-Journal, (Dem.)

When the Republican party took hold of the free whisky idea it discovered that the poker was hot at both ends, but it is still burning its fingers by "changing holds."—Pittsburg Post, (Dem.)

The President goes right along putting in his little veto on the pensions for men disabled by mumps and the widows of men who died of alcoholism, with no fear of the mighty Senate before his eyes.—[Philadelphia Times, (Ind.)

We do not believe that the imputation to Mr. Cleveland of hatred of veterans on account of these vetoes is good political capital, and should not advise too free a use of it by the advocates of General Harrison's election.—[Boston Transcript, (Rep.)

The Republicans are at last beginning to awake to a realization of the fact that Wisconsin is a doubtful State. Pretty soon they will begin to see that Minnesota and Iowa and even Illinois are not the dead sure Republican States that they have been supposed to be. If the grand old party is going to keep these States in its columns it must give up the idea of spending all its time, money and talents on Indiana, Connecticut and New Jersey.—[Chicago Times, (Dem.)

If the ticket of Harrison and Morton consistently represent a huge combination of professional spoilsmen and spoilatory class interests, the ticket of Cleveland and Thurman distinctively, loftily and prophetically stands for the righteous demand of the popular conscience and the honest intelligence of the country for the overthrow of the whole system of predatory politics—an overthrow which must come unless the republic itself is to be overthrown.—[Galveston News, (Dem.)

The Democratic party welcomes the discussion which its opponents have threatened so long, entering upon it at the beginning of the canvass instead of the end of it, as in 1880. It is confident and ready to follow its leader; and this year no threats of closed manufactories and starving workmen, no placards in the workshops announcing Republicanism or discharge, will avail to abolish the demand for tariff reform or make fainthearted the worker who would fain have fair trade, good wages and free speech.—[New York Graphic, (Dem.)

Republicans of the Ingalls stamp will support any Republican candidate on any kind of a platform possible of adoption. Unfortunately, however, the Republicans whose fidelity to the party is not to be affected by blunders in the platform or in the selection of candidates are not strong enough to elect a President. The candidate who can be elected must be not another Hayes, but a man who can poll more than the party vote.—Chicago Tribune, (Rep.)

More Worth the Living.

Between the acts, while the orchestra played
That sweet old waltz, with the little measure,
I drifted away to a dear, dead day,
When the dance for me was the sum of all pleasure;
When my veins were rife with the fever of life,
When hope ran high as an unswept ocean,
And my heart's great gladness was almost madness
As I floated off to the music's motion.

How little I cared for the world outside!
How little I cared for the dull day after!
The thought of trouble went up like a bubble,
And burst in a sparkle of mirthful laughter,
Oh! and the heat of it; Oh! and the sweet of it,
Melody, motion and young blood melted,
The dancers swaying, the players playing,
The air song-deluged and music pelted.

I knew no weariness, no, not I!
My step was as light as the waving grasses,
That flutter with ease on the strong-armed breeze,
As it wafts over the wild morasses.
Life was all sound and swing, youth was a perfect thing,
Night was the goddess of satisfaction.
Oh, how I tripped away, right to the edge of day—
Joy lay in motion and rest lay in action.

I dance no more to the music's wave—
I yield no more to its wildering power.
That time has flown, like a rose that is blown,
Yet life is a garden forever in flower.
Though storms of tears have watered the years
Between to-day and the day departed,
Tho' trials have met me and grief's ways wet me,
And I have been tired and trouble hearted.

Tho' under the sod of a new green grave,
A great sweet hope in darkness perished,
Yet life to my thinking is a cup worth drinking,
A gift to be glad of, and loved and cherished.
There is deeper pleasure in the slower measure
That Time's grand orchestra now is giving,
Its mellowed minor is sadder, but finer,
And life grows daily more worth the living.

NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Fremont Placed on the Retired List.

EIGHT-HOUR LAW CLAIMS BILL.

Republican Inconsistency Further Portrayed as Regards the Internal Revenue.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

WASHINGTON, July 17.—In the Senate, Teller said he was not well enough to speak on the fisheries' question to-day.

Allison reported back the Sundry Civil appropriation bill. The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the bill to place John C. Fremont on the retired list as Major-General of the Army.

Reagan and Cockrell opposed the bill.

Wilson, of Iowa, asked Cockrell whether he had not voted to put Fitz-John Porter on the retired list.

Cockrell admitted that he did, but said if he had done wrong once that would not justify him in doing wrong twice. Fitz-John Porter had nothing to do with the case. If a Millitary Commission examined Fremont's record and reported that a great wrong had been perpetrated on him, and if the General of the Army endorsed the report, then he (Cockrell) would vote to restore him his rank.

Wilson suggested that that could never happen, as General Fremont had not been dismissed from the Army.

Cockrell corrected that statement and said the record showed that John C. Fremont had been court-martialed and dismissed from the Army.

After further discussion the bill was passed; yeas 29, nays 21.

EIGHT HOUR LAW CLAIMS.

The Senate then resumed consideration of the bill providing for the adjustment of the accounts of laborers, workmen and mechanics employed by the Government under the eight-hour law.

Stewart supported the bill, and offered an amendment to prohibit any officer of the Government from making any contract or arrangement whereby any workmen, laborers or mechanics shall work more than eight hours per day except in special emergencies. Rejected; yeas 15, nays 29.

Mr. Dawes moved to amend the bill by inserting the words, "whether engaged at a price per day, on piece work or task." Agreed to.

Dawes also moved to insert the following words, "any assent to, or alleged agreement to receive a less amount or work a longer time than required as a condition of being employed (to the contrary notwithstanding)." Rejected; yeas 21, nays 23.

The bill was then passed; yeas 25, nays 22, as follows:

Yeas—Blair, Bowen, Cameron, Chandler, Cullom, Davis, Dolph, Farwell, Faulkner, Frye, Hale, Hawley, Hoar, Kenna, Mitchell, Palmer, Sabin, Sawyer, Spooner, Stewart, Stockbridge, Teller, Turpie, Voorhees, Wilson (of Iowa, 25.

Nays—Bates, Beck, Berry, Blodgett, Brown, Butler, Call, Cockrell, Coke, George, Gibson, Gray, Hamilton, Hearst, Jones (of Arkansas), McPherson, Pasco, Pugh, Reagan, Vance, Vest, Waldam—22.

PROVISIONS OF THE BILL.

The first section provides that whoever as a laborer, workman or mechanic has been employed by, or on behalf of, the Government of the United States since the 25th day of June, 1868, the date of the act constituting eight hours a day's work (whether engaged at a price per day, on piece work or task work) shall be paid for each eight hours he has been employed as for a full day's work, without any reduction on account of the reduction of the hours of labor.

The second section provides that all claims for labor, so performed, in excess of eight hours per day, is hereby referred to the Court of Claims, to be adjudicated upon the basis that eight hours constituted a day's work, and are to be paid for at the price per day as provided for in the first section of this act, and judgment given against the United States in favor of each claimant for the amount found due to be paid, as other judgments of the Court of Claims against the United States; and no statute of limitation or payment made, or receipt given for a less sum per day than the full price of a day's work, as provided in the first section of this act, shall bar the right of recovery; provided that all suits under this act shall be commenced within two years within and after its passage, and any number of claimants may join in the same suit, and provided further that any amount allowed under this act shall only be paid to such claimant in person or his personal representatives.

The bill for the admission of the State of Washington was taken up and was left unfinished business, after which the Senate adjourned.

THE HOUSE.

Republican Inconsistency as to Free Whisky.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The House today took up the internal revenue feature of the Tariff bill. The subject was considered in Committee of the Whole, and began at the earliest moment possible.

On behalf of the Ways and Means Committee McMillan, of Tennessee, offered an amendment providing that the bond required to be given by cigar manufacturers shall be in such penal sum as the collector of Internal Revenue may require, not less than $10, with the addition of $10 for every person proposed to be employed by such manufacturer. Adopted.

THE PENDING AMENDMENTS.

There were two pending amendments coming from yesterday, one offered by Wise, of Virginia, repealing the tax on cigars, cheroots and cigarettes, and one of Snowden, of Pennsylvania, abolishing the tax on spirits distilled from apples, peaches and other fruits.

Mr. Wise's amendment was defeated, 43 to 78, and Snowden's was withdrawn.

Nichols, of North Carolina, offered an amendment repealing all internal taxes. Rejected.

Snowden again offered his amendment abolishing the tax on fruit spirits. A long debate ensued.

The remark of Cowles, of North Carolina, to the effect that the Republican party was in favor of squandering the surplus in ill-deserved pensions, met with severe criticisms from Milliken, of Maine, and Williams, of Ohio, the latter of whom declared every soldier who could produce an honorable discharge deserved a pension.

McMillan sent to the Clerk's desk and had read an extract from Blaine's Paris letter, in which he opposes the repeal of the whisky tax, and says that to cheapen the price of whisky is to increase its consumption enormously.

ISSUE WITH BLAINE.

Kelly, of Pennsylvania, took issue with Blaine on this statement, and said that when Blaine comes home and finds that the supreme bodies of moralists and the thousands and thousands of women, united in the W. C. T. U., are demanding the repeal of the spirit tax, he will say: "I am ready to admit that I formed an erroneous opinion, but now I will labor with you heart and soul."

Brewer said Blaine would find that ninety per cent. of the Republicans of the country were in hearty accord with the views expressed in his letter.

Wilson, of Minnesota, supposed that the body of moralists referred to was that body which sat at Chicago and declared in favor of removing the tax from whisky and brandy, rather than from the blankets of the people.

Milliken believed the views enunciated by Blaine would be his views when he returned to this country.

Perkins, of Kansas, addressed himself to a denial of the charge that the Republicans were in favor of free whisky, and to show what he termed the audacity of the charge, he stated that when the Republican party came into power it found calico selling at 15 cents a yard and whisky at 20 cents a gallon, and that when it went out of power twenty-five years afterward, it left calico selling at 5 cents a yard and whisky taxed nearly $1 a gallon.

Gallinger, of New Hampshire, said if the Republican party was for free whisky so was the Prohibition party and so was the W. C. T. U. He was in favor of the repeal of internal taxation rather than destroy the tariff law. On that issue the Republican party proposed to go to the people of the country in November next, and on that issue it proposed so elect Harrison and Morton.

DUTCH COURAGE.

Wilson, of West Virginia, suggested that the Republican party in Chicago had become drunk over the Oregon election and that the platform was the result of Dutch courage. When that courage evaporated the Republicans came back and attempted to say that the platform did not mean what in black and white it put on record.

Snowden's amendment was then rejected by 44 to 79. Warner, of Missouri, offered an amendment providing that the special tax on wholesale and retail dealers in oleomargarine shall be $10 and $5 respectively. Rejected.

Adams, of Illinois, and Butterworth, of Ohio, criticised as opening the way for the evasion of the payment of the whisky tax, the provision authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion to allow distilleries mashing less than twenty-five bushels of grain a day, to be operated without storekeepers and gaugers.

Butterworth moved to strike out the clause. The motion was lost by 73 to 96.

McKenna, of California, offered an amendment providing for a drawback on grape brandy used in the fortification of sweet wines for export. Lost.

Mr. Hitt, of Illinois, offered an amendment reducing the bonded period for whisky to one year. Lost.

Lawler, of Illinois, offered an amendment to abolish the tax on oleomargarine. Rejected, 3 to 101.

LAST SECTION OF THE BILL.

The last section of the bill was then read, and on motion of Bynum, of Indiana, the date upon which the bill shall go into effect was fixed at October 1, 1888.

The Committee then rose. There have been a few paragraphs of the bill passed over informally and their consideration will be proceeded with to-morrow.

The vote on the final passage of the bill will not be taken until Saturday, when it is expected there will be a full attendance of members. Mr. Mills stated that he will call the previous question on the passage of the bill at 11:30 Saturday morning.

The House then took a recess until 3 o'clock, the evening session to be for the consideration of bills reported from the Committee on Commerce.

THE CIVIL SERVICE.

Fourth Annual Report of the Commission.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The fourth annual report of the Civil Service Commission was made public to-day. A large part of the report is devoted to statistics of uninteresting character. Between January, 1886, and June, 1887, 15,852 persons were examined, 10,846 of whom successfully passed. The percentage of failure was 34 female and 18 male. Of the successful applicants 4,443 have received appointments. The report recommends an extension of the classified service to embrace the employees of the Railway Mail Service, the field employees of the Indian and Labor Bureaus, the Indian schools, graded clerks in the Quartermaster-General's office, and War Department. The report concludes with a statement of the practical effects of the Civil Service Act and Rules. The conditions existing in the Civil Service before the approval of the act and the improvement in the service under the law and the rules are reviewed, and objections to the law are stated and answered at some length. Among the concluding paragraphs of the report is the following:

The Civil Service Act has been in force over four years, part of the time under one party, and part under that of another. That there has been accomplished in its execution all that its sanguine friends expected, is not claimed, but it may be said that the results of its execution is shown the wisdom of the principle of divorcing the subordinate officers of the Government from politics and selections, and making continuance in office dependent, not upon party service, but upon merit and good behavior. In this respect the law has produced results which are not extravagantly described as surprising.

The report was prepared by Commissioner Oberly, and is signed by the three members of the Commission, Lyman dissenting from the regulation of 1887 requiring certification to the head of an office of the whole list of eligibles for promotion.

Sundry Civil Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Sundry Civil Appropriation bill reported to the Senate to-day has been increased by the Senate Committee from $23,300,000 to $27,000,000, but is still $650,000 less than the estimates. It exceeds last year's bill by nearly $5,000,000. The following are increases or new appropriations for light houses: Statue of Liberty, Bedloe's Island, New York, for completing the pedestal and approaches, $50 000; Point Loma, California, $30,000; Ballast Point, California, $25,0000; Umpqua River, Oregon, $80,000; Astoria, Oregon, $15,000.

The following are among the more important miscellaneous items of appropriations in the bill: Custom service, increased from $20,000 to $30,000. For international survey of the Mexican boundary line, work to be done by army officers, $10,000. Public library building, Washington, $1,000,000. The Library Commission is abolished, and the work is placed under the practical charge of the Chief of Engineers. Denver military post, $100,000. For wagon road from Pike's Peak Military Reservation to the Signal station, $10,000. For additional buildings, Pacific Branch of the Soldiers' National Home, California, $100,000. Additional barracks for Northwestern, Southern and Western branch of the Soldiers' Homes, $101,000.

Major Hanbury sends in the following estimates: For completing the improvements at the mouth of the Columbia river, $3,422,500; for next year, $1,000,000. Construction of canal, Cascades of the Columbia, $1,850.000 to complete the project, and $500,000 for next year.

CAPITAL CULLINGS.

Notes from Legislative and Executive Departments.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—James H. Whittaker has been appointed Postmaster at Bueno Park, Los Angeles county, California.

The Department of State is informed that a revolution exists in Venezuela, and that Dr. Paul has assumed the office of President. Assistant Secretary Reves said this country was quietly watching affairs in Venezuela, but as yet had observed nothing in the situation that would justify interference on our part.

In respect to the publishing of the Rebellion records, a proviso is inserted that hereafter before the publication of any volume of said records, the manuscript copy shall be submitted by the Secretary of War to a committee, to be selected by him, who shall certify that the volume contains only contemporaneous official records of the War of the Rebellion.

The conferees on the River and Harbor bill seem to have reached an impassible barrier, and will propably report a disagreement. The items in dispute are Portage Lake Canal, Beaver river (Pennsylvania) dams and the Monongahela (Green and Barren's improvement proposition. The House conferees express a willingness to accept the Senate proposition to purchase the Green and Barren property, but hold out sturdily against the others.

Favorable action has been taken by the House Committee on Military Affairs on Lee's resolution calling on the Secretary of the Interior for information relative to application for pensions by officers of the United States Navy and Marine corps, who served honorably through the Mexican war, but whose names were dropped from the rolls because of their action in joining the Confederate forces. The Commissioner of Pensions has refused to grant applications for pensions in such cases. The latter resolution was reported to the House and adopted.

DIPLOMATIC APPOINTMENTS.

The President to-day nominated the following United States Ministers Resident to be Envoys Extraordinary and Ministers Plenipotentiary at the courts where they are now stationed: Lambert Tree, of Illinois, Belgium; Robert Roosevelt, New York, Netherlands; Rufus Magee, Indiana, Sweden and Norway; Charles L. Scott, Alabama, Venezuela. The President also nominated John E. Bacon, of South Carolina, now Charge d'Affaires, to be Minister Resident of the United States to Paraguay and Uruguay; Samuel S. Sears, of Nevada, to be agent for the Indians of the Nevada Agency, in Nevada.

SELECT LABOR COMMITTEE.

The select House Committee on the Importation of Contract and Pauper Labor will first visit New York and Boston, and later in the season will probably proceed to San Francisco to inquire into the Chinese labor question. Morrow, the California member of the Committee, says operations of the Committee will not in any way be allowed to affect the prompt action of Congress upon the pending bill to give effect to the new Chinese treaty, but will be mainly devoted to the ascertainment of facts attending the importing of Chinese labor through the British Columbia frontier. This will probably necessitate a visit by the Committee to Port Townsend, and if the allegations are borne out to the satisfation of the Committee it is expected that the recommendation will be made that negotiations be commenced with the Government of Great Britain looking to the imposition of proper restrictions on this kind of immigration.

MORE VETOES.

The President to-day vetoed four private pension bills. The first granted a pension to the widow of John Herbst, who enlisted in 1862. In August 1864 he was captured by the enemy. After his capture he joined the Confederate forces and was recaptured by the Union army and then explained that he deserted the enemy to escape the hardship of prison life, and was released and mustered out October 11, 1865. The disability for which his widow now asks for a pension, the President says, quite likely resulted from exposure in the Confederate army, and adds:

The greatest possible sympathy and consideration are due to those who bravely fought, and being captured, as bravely languished in Rebel prisons. I will take no part in putting on the pension roll which represents Union soldiers, a soldier found fighting against the cause he swore he would uphold, nor should it be for a moment admitted that such desertion and treachery are excused, when it avoids the rigors of honorable capture and confinement. It would have been a sad condition of affairs if every captured Union soldier had deemed himself justified in fighting against his Government rather than to undergo the privations of prison life.

CHAIRMAN BRICE.

First Steps Toward an Active Democratic Campaign.

NEW YORK, July 17.—The first step in the active work of the Presidential campaign was taken at noon to-day, when the National Democratic Campaign Committee went into session at their headquarters to organize. Chirman Barnum presided, and around the council board sat Arthur Sewall, Calvin S. Brice and Miles Ross. About half an hour after the session began Col. Lamont arrived, and was added to the conclave. After a few hours' conference the Committee adjourned to meet again at 7 o'clock tonight. They did not select a Chairman.

The Committee went into session again shortly after 7 o'clock and selected Col. Calvin S. Brice Chairman. He accepted the position.

The President of the National Association of Democratic Clubs has selected the following Executive Committees: Charles Ogden, Nebraska; Bradley G. Schley, Wisconsin; Alex. T. Ankeny, Minnesota; Harry Wells Rusk, Maryland; R. C. Monroe, New York; Harvey N. Collison, Massachusetts; Lawrence Gardiner, District of Columbia.

It is not easy to suggest any substitute for the National Convention, which, as we have said, has this great point in its favor, that it has grown up spontaneously to answer a political need. But it is evident that as a means of selecting the strongest or even the most eligible candidate of a party, in a case at all doubtful, it leaves much to be desired.—[New York Times, (Ind.)

EASTERN TOPICS.

Bohemians Make a Bad Break.

THE ANARCHISTS' PLOT EXPOSED

No Cause for Widespread Alarm. Chief Arthur's Graceful Acknowledgment.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

CHICAGO, July 17.—The names of the men arrested by Inspector Bonfield this morning for alleged complicity in an immense dynamite plot are John Kroneck, Frank Chapek and Frank Chebowa, all Bohemians. The first-named is a cabinetmaker by trade, who lives on Farrell street. Chebowa is a tailor, and is the informer who told the story of the plot to a Bohemian, who in turn detailed it to Inspector Bonfield about ten days ago. It seems that since the execution of the Anarchists a movement was started among their followers in Chicago, to do business at the old stand. It was concluded that the groups as reorganized should have no more than three member each, with each of the three members well acquainted with the others. By this arrangement it was thought that "squealing" in the ranks would become a lost art. The three men arrested to-day constituted a group, and in their hands was left the pleasant occupation of blowing up residences until the act of last November was considered fully

WIPED OUT IN BLOOD.

The group had no regular meeting place, but casually met as friends, and over a glass of beer concocted their bloody schemes. It was agreed that Grinnell's house should go up first, and Judge Gary's next and last Saturday night was the time set for carrying out the plot. Inspector Bonfield was the third man doomed to die, but just how had not been fully decided upon. On July 4th, Kroneck examined the premises of Judge Grinnell with a view to the habits of its occupants. When he reported to his companions that night the enormity of the offense began to dawn upon Chebowa, who made up his mind to ask a friend for advice. The latter hurried to the Police Department and told his story. In the houses of the three men numerous weapons were found and dynamite enough to have blown up the largest house in the city. It is stated in this connection that Kroneck and Chapek were intimate friends of Louis Lingg, the bomb-maker, and both were arrested after the Haymarket riot. Chief Hubbard says there will be more arrests made to-night, but refuses to give further information.

THE STORY OF THE PLOT.

Inspector Bonfield told the story of the plot and the capture. He said: The fact that a conspiracy existed came to me from a Bohemian on the west side whose name I will not give. We learned the whereabouts of the men last night and secured warrants for their arrest. Besides Lieutenant Elliott and four of his men we had two other officers along who spoke Bohemian. The first place visited was 2952 Farrell street, where Kroneck, the chief of the trio, lived. We arrived there about 4 o'clock this morning and concluded not to enter, but to wait for developments. The fellow came out about 7 o'clock and we arrested him without difficulty, he being taken entirely by surprise. His name is John Kroneck, and his age is about thirty. We searched the house and found a small portion of dynamite. We also found over two dozen bombs, about four inches long, of cast iron. Lieutenant Mahoney was then telephoned to and arrested Frank Chapek, at 498 Twentieth street. Chapek's house was not searched. Chebowa was then arrested by our party. In his custody was found eight half-pound packages of dynamite, labeled Ætna No. 2, and some bombs, the same as those found on Farrell street. The prisoners will be prosecuted under Section 54, which provides for a fine and from five to twenty-five years in prison, for having dynamite in unlawful possession.

NOT WIDESPREAD.

Inspector Bonfield said to-night to an Associated Press reporter: It is a mistake to suppose that the arrest to-day implies a widespread organization, or that public buildings were to be blown up and a reign of terror inaugurated. There are less than a dozen persons interested. These men are Bohemians, and very few of that Nationality are Anarchists. It is a sort of sporadic outbreak, and an ill-matured plan by a few persons, and far from contemplating a reign of terror and bloodshed. It meant merely mischief to three people, Judge Gary, Judge Grinnell and myself.

MRS. PARSONS THIRSTING FOR GORE.

Mrs. A. R. Parsons was informed of the arrest of the Anarchists to-day and asked if she knew anything about the matter. She said: If there was any conspiracy it was hatched up by the police. They haven't murdered any Anarchists since November and are thirsting for blood. If Grinnell and Gary are not killed soon I will kill them myself.

Pointing to her ten-year-old son she continued: What do you suppose I am raising him for? I shall tell him that his father was murdered, and by whom? By those red-handed butchers and they had better look out.

ARTHUR'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

He Admits the Burlington Won the Battle.

CHICAGO, July 17.—Chief Arthur left to-night for Cleveland. In conversation with a reporter touching the Burlington strike he said: We wanted certain things of the railroad. They were not given and we had a right to quit, and the Burlington had a right to employ other men. We made a heavy fight and have been beaten in it. There is no use saying anything else. It would be better for the men and the road that the strike be declared off and the strikers seek work elsewhere, or return to Burlington. The road has won, but at a great expense. The Brotherhood has lost none of its members, but has gained some.

AH BEN.

His Illness Exaggerated—Medical Treatment Discontinued.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 17.—General Harrison passed a quiet and uneventful day. He regards himself entirely recovered from his illness, but to apprise the public in a more satisfactory manner as to his true condition, a representative of the Associated Press called this evening upon Dr. Jameson, the General's physician, who said: "There has been at no time any occasion to regard General Harrison as a sick man. He had an attack of accute indigestion, but not of a severe character. It was sufficiently troublesome, however, to give him some pain and discomfort. There was at no time any febrile disturbance or even an intimation of inflammatory trouble, the pain yielding readily to a light anodyne treatment. Regarding him well I saw him for the last time this morning and advised him to discontinue the treatment.

A Memorial to President Cleveland. The Teachers' Big Conclave. Coast Items.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—At the quarterly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, held this afternoon, several important questions were discussed. A communication from Congressman Morrow was read, stating that the action of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors in refusing to allow the construction of a line of telegraph from the office of the Signal Service station in this city to the Black Point Military Reservation, was having a bad effect on the prospects of the bill creating the Point Reyes Military Telegraph line, petitioned for by the Chamber. President Merry announced that since the communication was written the Board of Supervisors resolved to allow the construction of the line, which would be in operation in a few days. It will be used for reporting ships passing at sea, and for the Signal Service and other dispatches of the War Department.

INDEPENDENT GOVERNMENT FOR SAMOA.

Congressman Morrow, in his letter to the Chamber regarding American interests in Samoa, suggests that the Chamber urge upon the Government the necessite of securing an independent Government for Samoa.

In reply to the request forwarded to the Board of Regents of the University of California, that a department of instruction in Nautical Astronomy and Practical Navigation be formed at that institution, the committee tr whom the request was referred reported favorably concerning the teaching of Nautical Astronomy.

A MEMORIAL TO THE PRESIDENT.

The chamber then ordered a memorial engrossed and presented to President Cleveland, protesting against the upsetting of land titles in California by the Department of the Interior, and asking the intervention of the President to prevent the threatened institution of suits for the purpose of litigating and inquiring into the validity of the Spanish and Mexican grants, and patents which the United States by the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo promised to uphold.

The annual report of the Board of Trustees was read, showing that the permanent fund on hand is $15,675. The total income from all sources last year was $11,000.

Dr. Sheldon moved that Secretary Canfield be paid $500 as tribute of respect for his arduous labors. This was carried unanimously and after the transaction of some other business the board adjourned.

A teachers' reception was held at the Mechanics Pavilion at night, at which there was a large attendance.

Addresses of introduction and welcome were delivered by Ira G. Hoitt, Superintendent of Schools, and Governor Waterman. Mayor Pond then welcomed the visitors on behalf of the city. Responses were made by President Aaron Grove, of Denver, Secretary Jas. H. Canfield, of Lawrence, Kansas, and Vice-President N. E. Sheldon, of Boston.

DYNAMITERS' DOINGS.

Another Plot Nipped in the Bud.

CHICAGO ANARCHISTS FOILED

Wholesale Dynamiting Opportunely Interrupted—Bowles' Story Corroborated.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

CHICAGO, July 17.—By bold, timely action, Inspector Bonfield this morning probably saved the lives of himself and Judges Gary and Grinnell. In a small frame house, near Ashland avenue and Thirty-third street, were found twelve dynamite bombs, a revolver and a knife, and as the owner of the articles stepped to the sidewalk he was arrested by Bonfield in person and taken to the police station. Two other arrests were made later. When questioned as to what the prisoners intended to do, Bonfield confined himself to saying: There was a conspiracy of long standing, and it was about to be put into execution. They intended to use dynamite on Judge Gary, Judge Grinnell and myself. The chief prisoner is an old-time anarchist and was prominent in the schemes of the Haymarket times.

Before making the arrest Bonfield had the house surrounded by five picked officers. Just as daylight was breaking the Inspector was joined in the vicinity by a stranger, and a few moments later a man emerged from the house. The stranger nudged Bonfield and the order was given to the officers to close in on the man. He made a desperate fight but was quickly overpowered and placed in the charge of two officers. Bonfield and the other officers then rushed into the house. They were met on the stairs by a woman, the wife of the man who had been captured, but she was brushed aside and the police, guided by the stranger, entered the hall bed-room, where, hidden away in a corner, the Inspector found an even dozen dynamite cartridges wrapped in brown paper. Further search of the room disclosed, hidden in the bed, a large revolver and a dagger. Some bundles of letters and other papers were also taken care of by the police. Then the patrol wagon was called and the prisoner was taken to the station. The officers next went to a house some distance away, which, it is supposed, was 3,015 Quinn street. Here the two other arrests were made and these captives were also taken to the Central station.

Inspector Bonfield is reported to have said privately that the plot was a well arranged one. About twenty determined murderers were in the conspiracy, and they were to meet at a certain house after midnight to-night to proceed to the homes of Grinnel, Gary, Bonfield, Frank Walker, General Stiles and others prominent in the prosecution of the Haymarket assassins. Dynamite was to be placed beneath the houses of these, and the powerful explosives were to be touched off simultaneously. The Board of Trade was to be blown to the sky at the same time and a wholesale reign of terror inaugurated.

CORROBORATED.

Informer Bowles Discloses a Concealed Bomb.

GALESBURG, Ills., July 17.—United States Marshal Marsh and two deputies brought informer Bowles here this morning to test the truth of his story that a dynamite cartridge had been placed on the Burlington track north of here, and subsequently, in consequence of fear of the results, had been concealed in a hedge near by. The officers and railroad officials and a number of prominent citizens went to the spot that Bowles indicated, and after considerable digging found the dynamite cartridge. It is of the Hercules kind and had caps on both ends. The Sheriff and others then went to the home of George Clark, one of the leading Brotherhood Engineers, and put him under arrest on a State warrant. Clark made no resistance and would say nothing, save to assert his innocence.

California Fruits in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 17.—The attendance at the California fruit sales here is increasing rapidly and competition is quite eager. The peaches offered to-day were the finest that have yet come to this market. Pears, being in small quantities, ruled 25 cents higher. A total of three carloads was disposed of. The prices realized were as follows: P. D. plums, $1.10 to $1.30; Bradshaw plums, $1.25 to $1.45; magnum bonum plums, $1.30 to $1.40; early Crawford peaches, $1.35 to $1.50; Bartlett pears, $2.05; nectarines, crates $1.40; grapes, $1.50; German prunes, $1.15 to $1 60; apricots, $1.35; cling peaches, $1.45 to $1.60.

Arthur Discountenances Violence.

CHICAGO, July 17.—Chief Arthur said to-day in course of a conversation that he would not and did not countenance any violence, whatever, on the part of the members of the Brotherhood against the Burlington road. Continuing he said: I am very sorry to think that any member of the order has done an overt act. I do not know as yet whether the strike will be declared off or not.

Arthur subsequently said that if it was proven that any member of the Brotherhood had used violent means to gain the ends desired, that man would be expelled from the order.

The Mandeville Inquest.

DUBLIN, July 17.—An inquest was begun to-day at Mitchellstown into the death of Mr. Mandeville, Editor O'Brien's companion, who is said to have died from the results of the treatment he received in Tullamore jail. The widow of the deceased testified that her husband had told her that he had suffered with sore throat throughout his prison term. He was unable to swallow and he suffered terribly from hunger. The prison doctor had failed to relieve him, and had certified that he was in a fit condition to receive punishment.

News Nuggets.

It was stated on Wall street on Tuesday that all right and interest in Edison's phonograph had been sold to an English syndicate for $250,000.

At Topeka, Kansas, Juge Guthrie released editor Moore, but he was immediately rearrested by a constable for adultery, and placed under $5,000 bonds and his case set for next Monday.

Sergeant Wilson won the London municipality prize at the Wimbeldon shooting tournament. Private Fulton, of the 13th Middlesex regiment, won the Queen's prize. His score was 280.

General Harrison rose early Tuesday morning, feeling in excellent spirits and health. There has been no recurrence of neuralgia pains. After spending a couple of hours with his secretaries the General ordered his carriage and drove down to his law office, where he spent an hour. This is the first time he has ventured out since last Wednesday. His family and neighbours have about ceased to longer regard him as a sick man.

Advices from Benkelman, Nebraska, say a terrific wind-storm Sunday night demolished a number of buildings in town. No loss of life. The buildings destroyed were mostly cheap frame affairs.

The New York Legistature assembled in extra session on Tuesday. Governor Hill's message related solely to the subject of making an appropriation to provide for the convicts in the prisons of the State.

The Dowager Empress Victoria is engaged in reorganizing her court. Her Majesty will remain in Berlin or Potsdam until she finds a suitable castle on the Rhine in which she can reside with her daughters.

At Buffalo, N. Y., a savage bloodhound owned by Nicohlas Smith got loose Monday night and attacked two boys named John P. Sippel and Anthony Smith, lacerating them severely about the head. It is feared they will die.

The Anti-Chinese Plank.

One of the most radical and uncompromising planks in the Republican platform is that which declares Republican opposition to Chinese cheap labor. The declaration is absolute, and puts the Republican party in the position of affirming that it will be satisfied with nothing less than the complete exclusion of the Chinese from this country. The plank reads as follows:

We declare our hostility to the introduction into this country of foreign contract labor and of Chinese labor, alien to our civilization and our Constitution; and we demand the rigid enforcement of the existing laws against it, and favor such immediate legislation as will exclude such labor from our shores.

Thus the Convention before proceeding to ballot for candidates put on record its unqualified denunciation of a policy which several aspirants for the nomination have advocated emphatically. Can the Convention, with any regard to consistency, ask a candidate to stand upon a platform which he has opposed and condemned? How can any of the Senatorial candidates who have advocated Mongolian immigration and insisted that the Chinese should have equal rights in this country with the Germans, Irish or other emigrants from Europe, ask the Republican nomination this year or write a letter accepting it on the terms stated in the platform? Must the candidate openly recant, or shall he seek pardon and absolution, or avail himself of a sentimental statute of limitations? With the record of the candidate as embodied in the official journals of Congress at war with the Republican platform, who will furnish the explanations and apologies needed? A newspaper or a prominent member of a party may be out of line with the views of the majority on any important subject, but in such a case the party is not responsible or open to the charge of inconsistency. But if a National Convention should nominate a pro-Chinese candidate and put him on an anti-Chinese platform, who could expect the official contradiction? If the candidate should represent one view and the platform the contrary, which should be accepted as the correct exponent of the party doctrine? It seems strange that the friends of the pro-Chinese candidate did not see this source of embarrassment and make an effort to modify the platform in the interests of their favorites.—[Chicago Tribune (Rep.) June 22, 1888.

Republican Free Whiskey—Blaine Against the Platform.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.	MR. BLAINE'S "PARIS MESSAGE."
The Republican party would effect all needed reduction of the national revenue by repealing the taxes upon tobacco, which are an annoyance and burden to agriculture, and the tax upon spirits used in the arts and for mechanical purposes, and by such revision of the tariff laws as will tend to check imports of such articles as are produced by our people, the production of which gives employment to our laborers, and release from import duties those articles of foreign production (except luxuries) the like of which cannot be produced at home. If there shall still remain a larger revenue than is requisite for the wants of the government, we favor the entire repeal of internal taxes (that is, free whiskey) rather than surrender of any part of our protective system at the joint behest of the whiskey trusts and the agents of foreign manufacturers.	I would not advise the repeal of the whiskey tax. Other considerations than those of financial administration are to be taken into account with regard to whiskey. There is a moral side to it. To cheapen the price of whiskey is to increase its consumption enormously. There would be no sense in urging the reform wrought by high license in many States if the National Government neutralizes the good effect by making whiskey within the reach of every one at twenty cents a gallon. Whiskey would be everywhere distilled if the surveillance of the government were withdrawn by the remission of the tax, and illicit sales could not then be prevented even by a policy as rigorous and searching as that with which Russia pursues the Nihilists. It would destroy high license at once in all the States.

And yet it is quite possible that before the present generation disappears from the stage some unexpected complication, some disputed question, will plunge us into trouble with another power. It may be the Panama canal matter, or the fisheries question, or something else. However, it does not concern us what the particular issue may be. The point is, are we ready to meet and repel aggression? There can be but one answer, and this fact alone should cause us to begin the work of necessary preparation.—[Atlanta Constitution (Dem.)

The Alabama convention differed little from other Republican conventions in the South, and was very much like what the Southern Legislatures were when the carpet-bag governments were in power, and what they would be if the Republican party in the South, composed as it is at present, were to get into power. There is great satisfaction in the thought that the Southern Republican party is not likely to show much vigor in the near future. If it ever comes to the front again its composition will doubtless be somewhat different from what it is now.—[Savannah News, (Dem.)

The laboring men of Indiana are not to be affected in any way by the bloody shirt fetich, to the employment of which in campaigns General Harrison has been much given. THE FREEHOLDERS.

Wards of the City—An Objectionable Feature Stricken Out.

The Board of Freeholders met yesterday afternoon, Mayor Workman in the chair, and Messrs. Book, Mackay, Estudillo, Mansfield, Baldwin, Moore, Dunkelberger, Day, Brown.

The committee appointed to consider the creation of a paid Board of Public Works, reported that such a body was unnecessary as the work can be done by the Council.

Mayor Workman said it had been suggested that the Police Commission and Fire Commission be formed of members of the Council.

General Mansfield said he was decidedly opposed to this idea and the matter was dropped.

The division of the city into nine wards as reported some time since was then taken up, and the proper description of the boundaries entered on the minutes.

First Ward—Bounded north by the north line of the city limits, between the Los Angeles river and the east line of the city between the north boundary of the city and Mission street; southerly by Mission street from the east city limits to the intersection with Mission road; Mission road from its intersection with Mission street to its junction with Macy street; Macy street from its junction with Mission road to the Los Angeles river west; from Los Angeles river from Macy street north to the north boundary of the city.

Second Ward—Bounded north by the north city boundary from the west boundary to the Los Angeles river; easterly by the Los Angeles river from the north city boundary to Downey avenue from the Los Angeles river to San Fernando street from Downey avenue to Upper Main street; Upper Main street to Marchessault to Main street; Main to Marchessault; First street from Main street to Canal street; Canal street to Diamond, to west city boundary from Diamond to the north city boundary.

Third Ward—Bounded north by Diamond from west city boundary to Canal street; Canal street from Diamond to First; First from Canal to Main east; Main street from First to Seventh; southerly Seventh street from Main to the west city boundary; westerly by the west city boundary from Seventh street to Diamond.

Fourth Ward—North by Seventh street from the west city boundary to Main; east by Main street from Seventh to Washington; south by Washington from Main street to the west city boundary; west by west city boundary from Washington to Seventh.

Fifth Ward—North by Washington from west city boundary to Main street; thence east by Main street from Washington to the south city boundary; south by the south city boundary from Main street to the southwest corner of the city; west by the west city boundary from southwest corner of the city to Washington.

Sixth Ward — Northerly by Ninth street from Main street to the Los Angeles river from Ninth street to the City boundary; south by the south boundary from Los Angeles river to Main street. West by Main street by the city boundry to Ninth street.

Seventh Ward—North by First street, from Main street to the Los Angeles river; east by the Los Angeles river, from First street to Ninth street; south by Ninth street, from Los Angeles street to Main street; west by Main street, from Ninth street to First street.

Eighth Ward—Bounded westerly and northerly by Main street, from First street to Marchessault street; Upper Main from Marchessault to San Fernando streets; San Fernando street from Upper Main to Downey avenue, and Downey avenue from San Fernando street to Los Angeles river; thence by Los Angeles river from Downey avenue to First street; by First street from Los Angeles river.

Ninth Ward—Bounded north by Macy street from the Los Angeles river to its junction with Mission road; Mission road to Mission street, Mission street to the east city boundary; east by the east boundary of the city, south by the south boundary of the city, and west by the Los Angeles river to Macy street.

Mr. Brown offered as a substitute for the subdivision of the city, a provision requiring the Council to divide the city into nine wards before a certain day. He objected to the insertion of ward boundaries into the charter, for the reason that it would invite opposition from the people, and would probably defeat the charter.

Col. Dunkelberger said that he had been elected by the people to perform the duties of his office, and he regarded it as a part of his duty to subdivide the city, and not to shirk the responsibility and place it on the Council.

General Mansfield agreed with Col. Dunkelberger, and proposed to stand by the subdivision.

Mr. Book said that he had consulted a number of politicians and citizens, and they thought that the division was fair, and that it would not cut any figure whatever in the adoption or rejection of the charter.

Mr. Mackay argued with the views taken by Mr. Brown.

Mr. Day was in favor of adopting the division for the reason that if adopted there would probably be some objections, and then the Freeholders could take the matter out of the charter.

Mr. Brown's amendment was lost, and the boundaries of wards as described were adopted.

Mr. Mackay gave notice to reconsider before the final adoption of the charter.

The matter of the payment of claims and demands was referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. Estudillo, Robinson and Mackay.

When the section providing that the city was not liable for the acts of its officials was reached, Colonel Dunkelberger objected to the city pleading the "baby act," and moved that this section be stricken out. A city should be liable for the acts of its officers.

Messrs. Mackay, Brown and Moore also took this view of the matter.

The motion to strike out this section was carried.

The Board then adjourned.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the most improved Medical Inhalations, combined with proper constitutional remedies, for the liver stomach, blood, etc. We are also now using the Compound Oxygen treatment which has such a world-wide reputation in lung and nervous affections.

Probably no system of practice ever adopted has been so universally successful as that introduced by Dr. Williams for the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

Over 80,000 cases treated during the past twenty-one years.

CATARRH.

The term Catarrh is applied to a peculiar disorder of the nostrils and adjacent parts, which prevails to an alarming extent, and is productive of very serious consequences.

The most prominent and characteristic feature is a morbid discharge from the head, varying in its nature at different times. In some there is an almost constant flow of clear, acrid fluid, but oftener an offensive, purulent, or muco-purulent, greenish-yellow matter is secreted, which accumulates in the nostrils or drops into the throat, necessitating its frequent removal by blowing the nose or expectoration, and often by both processes. Sometimes patients feel as though their whole head was in a state of rottenness, so great is the amount of matter discharged and so fetid is its odor. The patient is greatly annoyed by the constant dropping into the throat of the morbid matter from the head, and as a recumbent position naturally favors the flow downward, his rest is frequently disurbed from this cause. Many sufferers are obliged to lie with the head very much elevated in order to sleep with some degree of comfort.

In others, a tough, viscid and offensive phlegm collects behind and above the soft palate, in the passage between the throat and head, adhering to the parts with ghuish tenacity. This lodgement embarrasses respiration and creates a sensation of irritation and uneasiness in the affected locality, which gives rise to a constant and almost irresistible desire to relieve the discomfort by drawing the mucus into the throat, so as to eject it by the mouth. This practice, popularly known as "hawking," is characteristic of catarrh, and proves as embarrassing to the one affected as it is disagreeable to those around him.

Again, the offensive matter hardens and deposits itself on the membrane in the shape of dry, hard concretions, which are discharged by way of the nostrils or throat in lumps or fragments of a deep green tint. In some cases these incrustrations accumulate to such an extent as to form a regular plug in the nose, which obstructs breathing and produces serious discomfort. So firmly do these incrustations adhere to the point of attachment that their removal usually requires the most violent efforts; not unfrequently they have to be torn from the membrane. Occasionally a solid cast of notable size is expelled, on which there are generally traces of blood, but in some cases the cast presents a tubular appearance, being of exact shape of the nasal cavity. This condition is indicative of ulceration, which, in time may destroy the bony structure of the nose and produce a subsequent flattening of that organ.

Cases are occasionally met with in which a thick, viscid, slimy secretion coats the membrane of the nasal cavities, and then putrifies, giving rise to a stench which is really overpowering and sufficiently fetid to poison the atmosphere of a whole room; and there are others in which all the secretions of the membrane are suspended, causing an unpleasant feeling of dryness, heat and tenderness in the head and nose—a condition popularly known as "Dry Catarrh."

The disease speedily extends to the air cavities of the bones of the forehead and face, giving rise to a distressing sensation of heavy weight or compression over the forehead, especially in the region above and between the eyes, and to a feeling of fullness, heat, irritation, soreness, or pain in the nostrils near the root of the nose, as well as in the upper part of the throat, above and behind the soft palate.

Sometimes there is pain obstinately fixed in some particular part, as in the temple, on the top of the head, at the back of the neck, or behind the orbits, and occasionally pain manifests itself in the face of so severe a character that it is frequently mistaken for neuralgia.

The breath is always tainted, and at times assumes an exceedingly fetid and sickening odor. In some cases it becomes so revoltingly offensive as to render the sufferer an object of disgust to himself as well as to others.

The nasal membrane is thickened and congested, causing the nose to be stopped up, sometimes on one side, sometimes on the other, and often on both, giving rise to a disagreeable, stuffy sensation in the head, and occasioning violent and prolonged paroxysms of sneezing.

The voice is weak, indistinct and husky, or of a nasal character, displaying a sort of sniffing quality. Oftentimes there is a continuous hoarseness and discordance. There is also a sense of irritation in the throat, and frequent attempts to clear the parts of phlegm, producing the sound "hem," more or less forcibly. In some cases patients complain of an uncomfortable feeling of fullness, or a choky sensation in the throat, and in others of a distressing and almost constant dryness for the temporary relief of which they have to swallow frequently. Others, again, speak of a constant bad or nauseous taste in the mouth or throat.

The stomach generally suffers more or less, and becomes weak and irritable, the appetite is capricious, and nearly always bad in the morning. The patient is languid, unable to perform mental or physical labor with the usual facility, is nervous, depressed in spirits, at times fearful, timid, agitated and inclined to drowsiness and sleep, the memory weakened and permanent impairment seriously threatened.

The mucuous membrane soon becomes morbidly sensitive to unfavorable influences, and in spite of the utmost care becomes affected from the slightest causes, so that a breath of wind upon the linings of the nose or throat, becomes productive of a cold, and gives rise to serious disturbances of the respiratory organs. Thus the patient is subject to frequent and repeated colds, each attack aggravating the disease by giving it a new impulse, and involving a larger extent of surface than its predecessor. In this manner the difficulty spreads from organ to organ, luvading the larynx, trachea and bronchial tubes, until, encroaching further and further, it reaches the finer ramifications of the bronchi, when but a slight impulse is required to send it to the lungs. Catarrh may, and often does, affect other organs in the body, especially those containing a mucous membrane, such as the stomach, bowels, kidneys, etc.

By the employment of proper inhalations and Compound Oxygen treatment in the form of medicated vapor (not steam or spray) we are able to produce immediate and direct action upon the diseased surface in the larnyx and the nasal passages, for air will find its way into the remotest and intricate cavities, where it is utterly impossible to make fluid applications. By these means every case can be cured.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance from business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless, unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing can do with the same success.

The very best reference from those already cured.

EXCHANGE REVIEW.

NEW YORK, July 17.—A further decline in the stock market was expected this morning, in which London selling figured largely, but the feeling abroad had been strengthened by the rumor that the Iowa case had been decided in favor of the railroad and London prices came higher and foreigners were generally of a variable nature; reports from growing crops, the disposition shown by trunk lines to discontinue the fight on rates and reported progress toward a settlement of the Burlington and Quincy matter are helping on the general bullish feeling. The traders, however, forced the prices off in the early trading, but the buyers were too strong for them and before the end of the hour no serious losses were sustained, and the majority of the list showed an advance. The close was firm to strong, at about the highest figures.

Scenery by daylight is a great feature, as these excursions will stop twenty-four hours in Salt Lake, and go by daylight through the Black Cañon or the Gunnison, across the Continental Divide, through the famous Marshall Pass, thence down the valley of the Arkansaw through the Grand Cañon of the Royal Gorge.

About 10 o'clock one evening, at a house just out of town, the domestic detected a boy effecting an entrance through a window. Without raising an alarm, she watched the little fellow, who went direct to a closet, and, taking something from the shelf, was about to make his escape, when the servant arrested him with the plunder in his possession. She had no heart to punish him when she found the object of his burglary was a package of Frese's Hamburg Tea, which he said he had taken for his little sister, who was ill of a fever. She very properly told him he had acted very wickedly. Even if there was no money at home, some kind neighbor would have given him a little Hamburg Tea if he had asked for it.

INFANT MORTALITY.

Older People Should Try to Maintain Simplicity in Childhood.

Manners and morals are closely connected, though parents attentive to the children's training in the one are strangely negligent with regard to the other.

Example goes a mile where precept goes an inch with children, and I believe that the irreverence toward their elders which is justly blamed in children of the present age (and, perhaps justly also, in especial, among Americans) is largely owing to the greater freedom of companionship with their elders now always allowed to children. Few people will restrain themselves in speech on account of the presence of the little ones, and these consequently hear an immense deal of personal comment and criticism which they ought not to hear, if they are to keep that respect for their elders in general which surely it is desirable they should retain so long as it is possible.

To the same cause is due the sophistication of children, so noticeable, and to my mind, so deplorable. A boy need not be a baby because he does not know at ten what his grandfather did not know until he was twenty. The modest simplicity and the fresh and tender bloom of girlhood—no, it has not all disappeared yet! I believe that a child, who, without being coddled and "babified," yet is kept a child so long as, according to its years, it is called one, has a physical advantage over the child too early initiated into the knowledge of manhood or womanhood.

Business Man—"What's the matter? You look blue." Partner—"I expected to have some money left over this year to invest in real estate, but it's the same old story. I'll close the year without a cent." "What does that extravagant little wife of yours want this time?" "I don't know whether it's a new palace, a barrel of diamonds or a castle in Europe, but it's something mighty expensive. She hasn't said yet." "Eh? Then how do you know she wants anything?" "When I went home last night she was darning my stockings."—[Omaha World.

AMUSEMENTS.

Fanny Davenport in "Fedora" at the Grand.

Another large audience assembled last evening to witness Miss Davenport's impersonation of the title role of Victorien Sardou's celebrated drama Fedora.

This play possesses the unusual and somewhat harrowing peculiarity of having a distinct, thrilling climax in each act, instead of leading up to a gradual culmination. But Miss Davenport's ingenuity divests this distinguishing and unique feature of all monotony by delightful and refreshing variations in the treatment of it. In the first act our intently appreciative orbs observe a very fine demonstration of the law of equilibrium in the adroit, if somewhat perilous manner in which she poises, grief stricken, on the prostrate form of her deceased husband. In the second, the animating support of gratified vengeance. In the third, a neat exposition of that tiresome and inscrutable old Sphinx riddle of the enigmatical animal that walks first on four legs, then on two, then on three, in a transcendental manner. In the fourth, an enlivening and vivifying introduction of childhood's chief diversion of "see-saw," with the "now you go up, and now you go down" principle greatly accentuated. The irrepressible elasticity with which Miss Davenport "went up," after having very forcibly "gone down," removes the chief objection of fond mamas to their offspring improvising temporary tobogganslides with the assistance of the sofa and the maternal cutting board; in fact, many mamas turned their backs on that drop curtain, convinced, by ocular evidence, of the harmless nature of the sport.

Fedora is not Sardou's most masterful effort. He does not allow his heroine any gay or light veins which always serve to intensify the dark shades of passion and render them electrifying. The plot is developed too rapidly; and the abrupt confession in the second act relaxes the interest somewhat, while the delicately veneered suggestiveness that attracts at times is vulgarized into a broadness that repels. But it is a play of ungoverned passions and as such, if it did not enlist the warmest sympathies of the cool-headed American audience, it at least riveted their attention.

Miss Davenport is a talented, cultured woman, but she is not a genius. She lacks, above all, quiet, veiled concentration. "Fedora" is an impulsive, determined woman, and, considering her "strong provocations, bitter, burning wrongs," Miss Davenport's defense of Loris seems almost inconsistent; while her exulting, triumphant glee, at an acknowledgment that confirms her suspicions, has a superficial ring to it. There is a marked improvement in the third act; and, in the fourth, she entirely redeems herself. Then it is that she attains the polish of the true artist. Her "Fedora" is the embodiment of the loving, nervous, repentent, fearing woman. As she pleads with Loris, her voice softens to a doubtful, coaxing sobbing-like quality that is most flexible and magnetic. The hesitating, tremulous prayers for pardon, the fierce love, the soulful remorse, the great horror of death, and the vivid imagination and feeble, wandering gestures of the dying woman, are admirably portrayed, and evince an intellectual comprehension, and an appropriation of the capabilities of the scene, which, in conjunction with a majestic and voluptuous presence, an undulating an imperious movement, beautiful arms, bust and chin and a sweet smile, succeeds in insuring the enjoyment and compelling the admiration of her hearers.

Mr. Melbourne McDowell rendered Miss Davenport an exceptionally good support. Though somewhat affected in his gestures and poses, stagey in his carriage, and inclined a trifle to rant in his declamations, he invested the character of "Loris Ipanoff" with impassioned emotion and keen feeling. There is some fault to be found in his enunciation which is not always resonant, put prone to rage on "the cheap and chippy chopper" order. His appreciation of the statuesque is quite pardonable, however, for he is the possessor of a magnificent physique, and his facial expression is remarkably good. The accusation that Mr. McDowell brutalizes the representation in the last act is unjust, for while his action is, to say the least, rather vigorous, the author's delineation hardly admits of that "sweet souled endurance which makes clean the iron hands of anger."

Miss Sadie Montgomery's efforts well merited the frequent applause of the spectators, which greated her appearance as the "Countess Olgo Soukareff."

Mr. T. McCullough Ross and Mr. Charles J. Edmonds enacted their respective roles with much credit.

The Academy of Music.

Fogg's Ferry did not attract a very large audience to the Pavilion last night, but all present appeared to be satisfied with the performance presented. For to-night Ed Swartz's romantic comedy-drama Our Angel is announced, and will be put on with the full strength of the company. It will only be played two nights.

Little Mr. O'Flynn—"We have bin married foive years an' more, an' it's divil a cross word to me ould woman have I spoken yit!" Big Mrs. O'Flynn—"If yez did it would be ther last word yez would iver speak!"—[Puck.

"By the way, Mr. Straddles, which is the most general term, poet or poetess,?" Mr. Straddles—"Poet." "Can you give me a reason for it?" "I think so, sir. It is probably because 'a poet is born, not maid.'"—[New Haven News.

"One o' my hired men has got a notion he wants a fiddle," said an agriculturist to a Boston dealer. "What might that secon'-hand one in the winder be wuth?" "That's a Stradivarius; it's worth $3,000." "I'll speak to the hired man about it," shouted the agriculturist, as he backed out of the place. "He may not like that make."
